

HOUSE CONSIDERS WAY TO PEACE

Resolution Providing For Peace With Germany And Austria To Be Favorably Reported And Lodge Promises Prompt Senate Action—Nation's Business Said To Be Hit Hard By U. S. Delay.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, March 26.—A resolution providing for the re-establishment of peace between the United States and both Germany and Austria was being considered seriously today by the house foreign affairs committee.

The measure probably will be reported favorably to the house next week, it was said.

It is intended first to permit the resumption of trade relations between this country and both Germany and Austria; second, to wipe out the espionage act still in force. Representative Porter, chairman of the committee, arranged with Representative Campbell, Republican, chairman of the house rules committee, and other house leaders, that the resolution be given this right of way when it is reported.

Business interests in every section of the country have been deluged with telegraphic requests that something be done to relieve the trade situation created by the continued existence by a technical state of war between the United States and both Germany and Austria.

Great Britain is described as forging rapidly ahead in the development of world-wide commerce and as reaping increasing advantages by being re-established on a peace footing with Germany and Austria.

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, before his departure over the week-end, assured house leaders that prompt action by the senate on any peace resolution passed by the house might be anticipated.

Some senators, both Republican and Democratic, do not expect peace legislation to have smooth sailing in the senate.

The Austrian peace has not yet been submitted to the senate by the president. This treaty is wrapped around the League of Nations, the same as the German treaty. The Franco-American pact and the Polish and other agreements borne of the Paris peace conference are still to be acted upon by the senate foreign relations committee.

GAS AS USUAL BEING SUPPLIED

A few men from the gas plant of the Kingston Gas and Electric Co. are still on a "vacation," but the operation of the plant goes on and gas is furnished as usual. The entire force did not quit work and several of those who did quit have returned, realizing that arguments of one or two agitators are of trifling importance when compared to steady work at fair wages, and that it would be a crime to deprive 25,000 people of so necessary an article as gas. The Gas and Electric Co. is still advertising for men, and can give work to a small number, as it desires to put some of the men now operating the gas plant at work on repairs and extensions in the electric service.

CHURCH GROWS.

New Catholics in U. S. Number 180,000 For Past Year.

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, March 26.—The official Catholic directory for 1920, made public yesterday, announces an increase of 186,224 in the membership for the church last year, bringing the total membership in the United States and possessions up to 27,650,241.

The number of archbishops was increased from 14 to 16, according to the directory, but the number of bishops was decreased by deaths. There was an increase of 1,673 seminarians. New parishes totaled 148, and two new orphan asylums were established.

The secular clergy now number 15,338, an increase of 227, while priests of religious orders number 21,019, an increase of 21.

The Crucifixion.

St. James' church, "The Crucifixion," will be rendered by the three combined choirs of the First Dutch, First Street Reformed and the St. James' Church on Thursday evening of Passion Week. This is one of the finest religious services, and one of the most impressive, and will produce deep religious feeling. On Good Friday night there will be a communion service in the First Street Church, the earliest churches being St. James and First Street.

Will New Husband Arrived.

Frederick W. Barringer was arrested Thursday afternoon on the complaint of his wife, who resides at No. 4 Barclay avenue, charging him with failure to support her and their three small children. The hearing was adjourned to Monday at police court.

ASKS TO DIVERT CORNELL STREET

N. Y. Central Files Petition With Public Service Commission Asking To Run New Street From Cornell To Manor Avenue and Eliminate Crossing.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Albany, March 26.—The New York Central Railroad has made application to the Public Service Commission, Second District, asking for the closing of Cornell street in Kingston within the right of way of the West Shore Railroad and that a new street from Cornell street to Manor avenue be laid out as a public highway and the Cornell street traffic diverted to it. Cornell street now crosses the West Shore tracks at grade and the company alleges that it is dangerous and should be eliminated. Early consideration will be given the petition by the commission.

AMUNDSEN STARTS FOR NORTH POLE

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, March 26.—A new dash for the North Pole, led by Captain Raoul Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, is under way, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express today from Christiana, based upon news just received there from the far north.

No further news from Captain Amundsen's expedition is expected until spring. The explorer is said to have left the exploration ship Maude on his trip across the polar ice fields accompanied by only two men.

The steamship Maude left Christiana for the polar seas in June, 1918, but Captain Amundsen did not board her until she reached Tromsø. Elaborate preparations for the expedition had been made. The explorer planned to follow the Siberian coast eastward from North Cape through Arctic seas, with which he is familiar, having discovered the northwest passage in 1906.

The exploration ship Maude was built after a new design and the equipment of the expedition included two airplanes. Whether or not the explorer will attempt to reach the pole in one of the planes depends entirely upon conditions in the north. He studied aviation and became an expert flyer before he left Norway.

Reports filtered in from the north last September that the Maude was ice locked somewhere north of western Siberia. That was the first heard of the vessel in about a year.

Amundsen planned to drift eastward from the White Sea with the ice to the new Siberian Islands, which lie in the Arctic Sea. Sufficient food was taken to last the party four years.

Captain Amundsen planted the Norwegian flag on the South Pole on December 14, 1911. He is a native of Norway.

ONLY 100 GALLONS

Of Liquor Every Three Months Will Be Allowed Druggists.

According to a ruling made in Washington, D. C., druggists are to be cut down to one hundred gallons of liquor every three months, but this ruling will not have any effect on Kingston, because none of the druggists here are dispensing any of the "hard stuff" on prescriptions. A dispatch from Albany says:

Accused by the enormous number of prescriptions for liquor being issued by physicians, an order restricting the sale of liquor to druggists by lowering the amount was received Thursday at the office of the federal prohibition agent in Albany from headquarters at Washington.

"Only 100 gallons of liquor will be permitted druggists every three months. This applies to stores which are not under bond. Those which are under bond of $1,000 will be permitted the limit of 275 gallons a month. Prohibition officials declare they interpreted the new ruling to cover new permits. Druggists who may apply hereafter for the privilege of filling liquor prescriptions will be under the restriction ban, but those under bond will be permitted to continue until the end of the year."

Corporation Shows Well.

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, March 26.—Some ten thousand New Yorkers are ready to testify today that George's Catering looks and acts like a fighter when he gets into fighting logs. George's boxed a short exhibition bout with Mayor A. Bruce Riddle as the feature at a dinner given by the International Sporting Club. The challenge for George's title is well met and a graceful performance.

Was Jones Really a Socialist?

This will be the topic discussed by Dr. Baragwanath in the St. James Methodist Church on Sunday night. In this day we are hearing so much about Socialists and socialism. Many of them are Jewish claimants that Jones was a Socialist. What is the truth when this claim is measured by the plain teachings of the New Testament?

SUPREME COURT MONDAY APRIL 5

Through inadvertence the date set for the holding of the adjourned term of the supreme court, Justice Nichols presiding, was omitted in The Freeman on Wednesday evening, the date being Monday, April 5, at 2 p. m., the same time the Ulster county court will convene. The Freeman stated it would meet on Monday, omitting April 5, and although the extra talesmen have been notified by the sheriff as to the day of the month many seemingly believe The Freeman item with the day of the month not stated. In order that there be no excuse on the part of jurors notified, The Freeman has been requested to make announcement of the day of the month when court will convene.

MAY RENT ROOMS AND HELP TOWN

C. of C. Committee to Find, if Possible, Accommodations for Tourist Overload in Private Homes—Some Slept in Autos Last Season.

Each year sees an increase in the number of automobile tourists who wish to stop in Kingston over night or for a longer period in the spring, summer and fall.

The numbers in which these tourists visit us are so great as to swamp our hotels and rooming houses. Last year there were times when tourists were compelled to sleep in their cars.

It is the belief of the summer development committee of the Chamber of Commerce, C. H. Lovin, chairman, that many private families would be glad to advance the interest of Kingston by renting rooms to these tourists from time to time.

It is the purpose of this committee to insert advertisements in the local papers which will give those who are willing to rent rooms an opportunity to list them with the Chamber of Commerce.

These lists will then be furnished by the Chamber of Commerce to Kingston hotels and rooming houses so that they will know where to direct guests that they are unable to care for.

The summer development committee is determined to do everything possible to add to the attractiveness of Kingston as a gate-way and base for the Catskill-Shawangunk region.

This is one of the largest real estate transactions in some time in the village.

CROWDS ON HAND FOR FIRST DAY OF SPRING DRESS UP IN STORES

Combination of Good Weather and Opening Roads Brought Many to View What is Conceded to Be Best Display Yet Achieved by Kingston Merchants.

Judging from the number of people who visited every part of the business section of the city on Thursday the residents of Kingston and Ulster county decided unanimously to "be on hand" for the opening day of the spring display. Greeted by warm sunshine and a real touch of spring the people turned out early to look over the spring display of merchandise which the merchants have placed on sale and the first day of the Spring Dress Up display which will continue for the remainder of the week was the most successful spring opening yet attempted by the merchants of the city.

Although there was not the formal preparation this spring as at former "dress up" openings, still the merchandise displayed in the windows of the various shops consists of tempting samples of what fills the interior of the stores. The window displays this spring are even better than in former years.

The merchants of the city have entered into the affair with a spirit, as a visit to the shopping districts will convince. Perhaps never before has a more fresh, new or artistic line of goods been displayed. Every store has a line of spring goods on display such as never before seen in town, and as one shopper put it, "the spring opening this year is the best ever."

To add to the success of the season the roads are once more opened and the people from the outlying districts are again able to get into town after being shut in by the severe weather for the past six weeks. The various bus lines entering the city are again running and

Thursday capacity loads were carried into the city to look over the new spring line of goods.

For the remainder of the week these attractive displays will be continued, the stores will be illuminated during the evening and everyone should take advantage of this opportunity to see the latest models of spring garments and merchandise.

Two of the largest merchants of the city stated that they had been handicapped for some time on account of the bad conditions of the roads, the people had been unable to come out to make the usual purchases, but Thursday the combination of fine weather and the spring opening had brought out the largest crowd of shoppers in several weeks. The opening had been far beyond their expectation and would undoubtedly be the most successful yet.

One of the business men stated that Thursday he had been surprised to see one of his old customers from Kripplush come into the store after an absence of several weeks. He explained that he could not miss the Spring Dress Up display and had made a special endeavor to come out. In order to "be on hand" he had started from his home in Kripplush Wednesday with a team of horses but after progressing two miles he was compelled to turn about and go home. It was impossible to get through with his home to Kingston and "be on hand" for the opening he left home the following morning on foot and arrived in Kingston. Off the main roads the travel is still very light and it is practically impossible to get through in some places.

The chairman of the Kingston Near East Relief committee, Attorney Newton H. Fessenden, has decided upon the personnel of his executive committee as follows: Palmer A. Canfield, Jr., William C. Van Buren, secretary; Charles R. O'Connor, treasurer; and Sidney D. M. Hudson, publicity director.

During the past week there have been three important meetings at the office of Chairman Fessenden at which plans were presented and adopted for reaching and securing the co-operation of the churches, the fraternal organizations, the Sunday schools, clubs, public schools and the industries of Kingston. Saturday afternoon in the First Reformed Church, Publicity Director James A. Lavery, of Poughkeepsie headquarters, will address the Federation of Women's Clubs.

The general advisory committee of the Kingston Near East Relief is here published for the first time:

Hutchinson Mrs. Charles Tappan Dr. Frank L. Eastman Miss Eleanor Chipp Myron J. Michael Frank Cornwell Sam Bernheim Charles Ramsey

It is planned to begin the appeal in Kingston and Ulster county on Monday, April 5th.

The Near East relief appeal is one hundred per cent relief because all the expenses of the Near East relief is paid out of private funds, donated by a group of wealthy New Yorkers for the entire wide appeal. All accounts of the Near East relief are audited by Hurstman and Cranston, certified public accountants, and a report is made to the authorities at Washington, because the Near East relief is incorporated by act of congress.

C. OF C. TO DISCUSS TROLLEY MATTERS

Meeting Of All Members Called For April 5th To Determine Chamber's Position On Removal of Washington Avenue Tracks.

The Chamber of Commerce, in line with the requests of a large number of its members, has called a meeting of its entire membership on Monday, April 5th, to discuss certain matters relating to trolley service. The letter calling the meeting follows:

Chamber of Commerce Members: A considerable number of the members of the Chamber of Commerce have suggested that the Chamber should give consideration to the matter of the proposed abandonment of certain tracks of the Kingston Consolidated Railroad Company on Washington avenue.

The Board of Directors has, therefore, called a Forum Meeting of the membership of the Chamber of Commerce to be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building at 8 p. m. on Monday, April 5.

The purpose of this meeting will be to secure an open discussion and expression on the part of the members of the Chamber of Commerce in regard to the proposed abandonment of the Washington avenue tracks with respect to its relation to the welfare of the city as a whole.

It is expected that on the basis of the discussion at this meeting it will be possible to determine the position of the Chamber of Commerce by means of a written referendum of the membership to be held shortly after this meeting.

It is understood that any related questions in regard to trolley service in Kingston may be included in this discussion.

Very truly yours, SYDNEY D. M. HUDSON, Secretary.

CANFIELD TALKS TO RED MEN

Mayor Canfield paid a visit Thursday evening to Minnawaska Tribe, No. 130, Improved Order of Red Men, and gave a very interesting talk on the history and origin of the order.

The mayor spoke of the primitive red man of America and spoke of the customs and superstitions of the race. He told of the history of the Indian and of early life in America among the Indians. In a most interesting manner he told the members of the Minnawaska Tribe of the customs of the first inhabitants of the country and brought the audience up through the various changes to the present date.

He spoke of the organization of the Improved Order of Red Men which is the oldest fraternal organization of strictly American origin, an organization which is based upon the red man's customs and which still carries out many of the quaint and interesting customs of the Indian. He told of the rapid growth of the organization which at the present time has a membership greatly in excess of the number of Indians now living in the country. While the Improved Order of Red Men is growing in number every day, the real red man of the country is slowly diminishing in number. The mayor's talk was enjoyed by a large number of the members of Minnawaska Tribe and several visiting members of the order.

At the close of the meeting the refreshment committee served the members and guests with ice cream and apple pie, a great dish among the members of Minnawaska Tribe. The pinocchio players then took possession and battled for honors. The team consisting of Guy Crosby, Mayor Canfield and Frank Jagger winning the series.

Will Not Children Run Movies.

Senator Salvatore Cotillo of New York city Thursday introduced a bill in the legislature which would allow children between 10 and 16 years of age to attend moving picture performances unaccompanied, during certain hours of the day. The bill provides that children may enter the "movie" houses on afternoons of days other than school days or after school hours and before 6 o'clock at night although not accompanied by parent or guardian, provided space is aside for the children to be in charge of a matron, whose fitness and character are to be approved by the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children. The bill is endorsed by the New York State Native Sons' and Daughters' League.

Ever since the drill season of the military training commission opened last September, a number of the local high school boys have been working to fit themselves for commission and non-commissioned officers of the High School Battalion, this battalion being composed of Company C, 45th Regiment, and Company C, 87th Regiment, Corps of Cadets, State of New York.

This work has been entirely voluntary on the part of these boys and quite apart from the required training, consisting in more advanced instruction after the regular drills were over, very considerable home study on military subjects and practical experience and training during drill in the duties of the various ranks of officers. The inspection will take place in the state armory on Broadway at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and immediately following the inspection the new officers will be warranted, the speech of presentation being made by Mayor Canfield and the actual presentation by Colonel Treanor.

Home Candy Making

Not many years ago everybody made candy at home.

Now the fashion of home candy making has returned. All kinds are made at home, from the molasses variety that is pulled to fudge or creams. Richness in candy demands some fat. Butter is too expensive, lard compounds leave their mixed flavors and odors.

The best candy shortening is SALANUT—refined virgin peanut oil,—the same oil you use in frying, baking or salad making.

Peanut Fudge

2 teaspoons SALANUT 2 cups brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla 1/2 tablespoon salt
1 cup chipped peanuts 1 cup milk

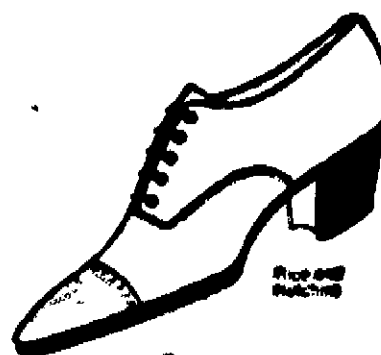

Boil the milk, sugar, SALANUT and salt until it will form a hard ball when tested in cold water. Remove from fire, stir in the flavoring and nuts and beat until creamy. Pour into a pan oiled with SALANUT and as it cools mark it in squares.

SPRING SALE!

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman
New York, March 26.—Vigorous upturns were made in many of the issues at the opening of the stock market today. General Motors continued its wild fluctuations, opening 16 points higher at 400 and then dropping to 392. Steel Common rose 1/4 to 102 1/2 and Baldwin Locomotive 1/4 to 130. Crealtie advanced 3 points to 245 and Republic Steel 1/4 to 107. Stutz Motors rose 13 points to 295. Pierce Arrow made a gain of 2 points to 69 1/2 and General Motors certificates 3 points to 41 1/2. The copper issues were in demand, Utah Copper advancing 1 1/2 to 79; American Smelting 1 1/2 to 69 and Anaconda 1 point to 64 1/2. Mexican Petroleum made a gain of 2 points to 198, Pan-American Petroleum 1 1/2 to 100 1/2 and Texas Company 3 points to 212. United States Rubber rose 1/4 to 110 1/2 and American Woolen 1/4 to 134 1/2. After the initial gains pressure was exerted against the market and nearly all of the opening gains were lost. Steel Common sold off to 101 1/2, General Motors to 388 and Stromberg Carburator after advancing to 95, fell to 88 1/2. The market was heavy during the greater part of the forenoon. Stromberg Carburator after falling off to 88 1/2 rose to 99 and Stutz Motors advanced 27 points to 309. General Motors yielded to 387 and the certificate stock fell from 42 to 38 1/2. Steel Common dropped to 101 1/2 and Baldwin Locomotive 2 points to 133 1/2. Standard Oil of New Jersey yielded 10 points to 83. The market showed a better tone during the afternoon as the call money rate did not get above 10 per cent, and the close was strong; government bonds unchanged, railway and other bonds strong.

BETTER LINE THAN CORSETS

Saleswoman Had to Admit That Acquaintance Would Be Wrong to Make a Change.

They were in Pullman seats on a night train, both making up expense accounts. One leaned over and said: "Ever paid it?"

"I think not. Do you?"

"Surest thing you know. All the money I spend I make up in my accounts."

"Then come the usual question: 'So, what line are you in?'"

"The rich society girl who had of late been serving to raise money for the United States war work campaign."

"I played the novice and parried the question."

"I am sure you are in?"

"I am in petticoats. But if you want to make money go into corsets. I was in it for five years and made a pile of money. You get tired of selling corsets, but I went into petticoats. I'll leave you if you want to make money go into corsets. Say, what would you do today?"

"I am in the good?"

"I think I did fairly well."

"How much did you do?"

"About $200." (The actual amount yielded to Miss — for the campaign.)

"The saleswoman, who had covered over a $200 day in corsets good business, replied:

"Heavens, don't go into corsets!"

Sweetness of Revenge.

Timothy Brown was a commercial traveler and a valuable asset to his employers.

On one of his periodical rounds he included in his list of calls a certain firm merchant, Jonas Perkins by name—a crusty, ill-natured individual—who invariably treated Timothy with the greatest of discourtesy, and who on more than one occasion had torn his card up in his presence and thrown it on the floor. As becomes a good commercial traveler, however, Timothy was undaunted and rowed to his revenge.

In due course he called on his friend again and presented his card.

"Halled," shouted old Perkins, giving the card the usual wrench. "What do—?" But here he interrupted himself with a yell of pain, accompanied by a miniature war dance.

Timothy's card was made of emerald tint—London Tintilla.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MARCH 26, 1920.

"WHERE ARE WE AT?"

The Legislature having failed to repeal the state "Daylight Saving" law and Congress having repealed that silly effort to set aside the laws of nature, New York State now stands in the attitude of attempting to nullify an act of Congress as well as a law of nature. Railroads that operate inter-state lines or inter-state trains must run on a standard time schedule in order to obey the federal law. United States courts, customs houses, post offices, internal revenue collectors and federal reserve bank must operate on standard time, being federal institutions. State officials must set their clocks ahead. Railroads within the state, or trains on inter-state railroads that are run entirely within the state may do as it pleases, resting assured that whatever it does it will have to make a calculation every time it does anything involving the time of day. Railroad and bank men are in conference in New York city today, seeking some way out of the muddle, which never would have existed had it not been for the influence of the thoughtless on the New York Legislature.

In all this uncertainty and confusion the Freeman does not know what it is going to do next week, whether it will begin the day an hour earlier or not. The decision rests on the outcome of the conference being held in New York today. If, for instance, the railroads do not set the clock ahead but change the time of their trains one hour earlier, it might be possible, or even necessary to obey the state law and disobey the federal law. But if the railroads make no change either in time or in schedule, it may be desirable to obey the federal law and violate the state law. We would like to consult the convenience of our employees in the matter, but it seems probable that the self-elected guardians of other folks' liberty and welfare who are the cause of the present mix-up have done their work so well that this will be impossible.

FLIM-FLAM

The proposal to permit those who contribute to a Community Chest to designate the objects to which they desire their contributions to be devoted is—probably unintentionally—sheer flim-flam. No amount of designating can prevent a contribution being apportioned, in effect, to all the objects included in the Community Chest and the person must be very thoughtless or dense who cannot understand this. Here is an example:

Suppose you so admire the Boy Scouts that you contribute $100 to the Community Chest and designate the Boy Scouts as the recipient of your entire donation. There is no question but that the Boy Scouts get the entire $100 and that it will be counted a part of the apportionment they are to receive from the Community Chest. There can also be no question but that your contribution has relieved the Community Chest of $100 of the total that had been apportioned to the Boy Scouts. It has that much less to pay out of the Chest to the Boy Scouts. Therefore it will have just $100 more to distribute among the other objects for which money is being raised. And it has this $100 because of the $100 you contributed.

Under these circumstances haven't you contributed toward every object that shares in the Community Chest?

AMERICAN FILMS ABROAD.

The empire of the "movies" has long since extended to remote parts of Africa and the interior towns of Asia. As the new art (if the Indian term near-artists will permit such a term) has been more highly developed in America than elsewhere, and in consequence American films are continually sent to the four corners of the earth, impressions of American life, manners and ideals have been very widely diffused. Perhaps the "movies" have accomplished more in a few years than the printing press could hope to do in a century. It is not surprising, therefore, to find an alarmed Briton, who has had "a great deal of experience" in the film world of the East," complaining of this "American menace" in a letter to the London Times. The prestige of the British empire in India, China and Africa, he says, is being steadily lowered by a deluge of American pictures which "present the United States as the first country in the world."

What is more alarming still, "many of these pictures present life to the native in a way which can do most deadly harm," for often natives are shown "living on terms of complete equality if not superiority to the Europeans," there being even American films in which natives "often figure as heroes." Dark-skinned natives of the dependencies, of course, should be shown only as the deferential servants of the British sahibs. So far as most of us have observed, there is about as much (social) class distinction in American films as in British, but it may be quite true that there is a certain atmosphere in the average American picture that the Britisher in such colonial dependencies as India might see reason to regard as politically unwholesome.

VACATES CANTINE STRIKE INJUNCTION

An order for discontinuing action and vacating injunction has been signed by Judge Hasbrouck in the matter of the Martin Cantine Company of Saugerties against Charles Eichorn, individually and as president of Local No. 210, International Papermakers' Union. An injunction was granted February 27th by Judge Nichols restraining Eichorn, William Wolven, Arthur Oliver, Edward Whitaker, George Dixon, Millard Layman, Lawrence Dixon, William Nicklaus, Edward Freigh, John Tierney, Frank Delaney, Lester Carle and all members of the union from interfering with the workers who continued in the strike at the company during the strike at the Cantine paper mills in Saugerties. The strike has since been settled and most of the men have returned to work. P. E. W. Darrow was attorney for plaintiff and Grant M. Brinlier attorney for defendants.

PARENTS RECOVER PAUL LITTLE

Escaped From Hotel Bathroom,
Where Kidnappers Had Confined
Him, and Telephoned His Home—
Police Expect to Arrest Criminals Soon.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Lexington, Ky., March 26.—Paul Little, the 12 year old boy who was kidnapped here two days ago, escaped from his captors at 7 o'clock this morning. He had been locked up for more than 48 hours in a bath room adjoining a bed room in the Phoenix Hotel.

This morning his jailers left the room with the bathroom door unlocked. The boy crept out and seized the telephone.

He called his home and a few minutes later his father, accompanied by Chief of Police J. J. Regan and a squad of policemen broke down the door.

The boy leaped into his father's arms.

"I'm all right, daddy," he cried.
"Don't cry no more."

Chief Regan gave orders to his men to comb the city for the kidnappers. The boy gave an excellent description of them and their arrest was thought to be the matter of a few hours. The boy said that they had gone out to breakfast.

The boy said he had been held in the hotel room ever since his disappearance Wednesday afternoon within a block of the court house. When the boy's captors got him to the room they thrust him into the bathroom and locked the door. They warned him if he screamed his throat would be cut. He kept silent.

AT THE THEATRES.

William Farnum at Opera House—
Billie Burke and Ilma at Keeney's.

No better character for Victor Hugo's masterpiece, "Les Miserables," at the Opera House today and Saturday, could have been selected than William Farnum, and the story is familiar to every student of literature. The matinee today will be held at 3 p. m. in order for the school children to take advantage of this opportunity to see "The epic of a soul transfigured and redeemed; purified through heroism and glorified through suffering." Evening perfor-

GOVERNOR SMITH LINES UP AGAINST RENT GOUGERS

Transmits Special Message and Resolving Conditions Report to Legislature and Says He Will Go Limit to Remedy Situation Which Threatens Great Suffering—Local Housing Board Recommended.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Albany, N. Y., March 26.—Governor Smith today took a hand in the efforts to loosen the grip of the rent gougers on tenants throughout the state.

"I am ready to go with you as far as the state constitution permits," the governor declared in a special emergency message to the legislature today, in which he urges immediate enactment of measures to remedy the situation which is daily growing more alarming. He transmitted the report of the reconstruction commission on housing conditions at the same time and urged the legislature to consider the commission's recommendations, not only to afford a temporary relief, but also to establish a constructive policy for the future.

"We have hidden our heads in the sand and refused to look the situation in the face and now it has become such that it is forcing itself upon our attention in no uncertain terms and a fear great suffering if we do not now take action," the governor admonished the lawmakers.

The reconstruction commission presented two reports. The majority provides for creation of unpaid local housing boards in cities having a population of over 10,000. It recommends a co-ordinating agency, which, in the opinion of the governor, should be placed in the industrial commission, thereby obviating the necessity of creating a new governmental agency. The majority report of the commission concurs in the creation of such a bureau but differs in the interpretation of its functions.

The governor urged as one means of remedying the rental situation that some 20,000 vacant flats in old tenement houses, which have not been improved as called for by the tenement house law, should be made as habitable as possible so that they can be occupied. He suggested a competition among architects to find an economic solution of these old houses.

The governor says that the real remedies are:

Construct more buildings. Eliminate trade obstacles in the building trades.

All parties in the building industry should stretch a point.

Banks should be reconciled to the higher costs and recognize them in computing percentages on loans.

"Labor and employees in the building trades should lay aside their quarrels and wait a time when strikes would not affect so many of their own people before forcing issues that might well be laid aside in the public interest," the governor warned.

The pressing shortage of dwellings, he contends, is the primary cause of high rents and "affords opportunity to the sharks that always stand ready to prey upon the poor and to profiteer in necessities."

When the lawmakers solve the temporary situation, the governor urges them to tackle the permanent housing problem which faces the whole state.

"We are face to face with all kinds of profiteers," said the governor. "These have taken advantage of our necessities in food, in clothing, in almost every essential in life, and particularly now in the matter of rents. We can find a protection for ourselves from the clothing profiteer by doing without, and making our old clothes go a little further. We have found some measure of protection from the food profiteer by seeking out the large markets in which to bargain for food. But the dweller in another man's house is helpless when it comes to profiteering. Nothing is more certain in life than rent day and when it comes around we must pay. Profiteering landlords are unpatriotic. They are displaying the same greed and selfishness that has been an underlying cause of the difficulties through which we have been passing in the last five years. They are a class which desires to make money illegitimately, rather than to earn it."

"Greed for power convulsed the world. Following in the wake of war, greed for money is rocking the foundation stones upon which Democratic government rests. If it continues, we might well say that we have returned to the law of the cave-man—the law of the sharpest tooth, the angriest growl and the greediest maw."

Men who are not satisfied with what does for others—it is for you that Kuppenheimer, Hickey-Freeman, United, Ford Policy Clothes are made!

If these wonderful institution of fine clothes-makers should go out of business tomorrow, other makers would supply the deficiency in volume.

But we question very much if any other houses ever could supply the inspiration to higher standards of workmanship which is Kuppenheimer's, Hickey-Freeman's, United, Ford Policy largest contribution to clothes.

Each season they create new standards of excellence, putting in the shade all that has gone before!

Each season, their efforts are looked for, as eagerly as the literary world waits for a new book by Wells, or flocks to see the latest play by Barrie.

They stand alone and isolated from competition by a reputation for great workmanship, which gets greater as each season rolls around, and which is at its greatest this present Spring.

Charles V. DuBois Rewarded for Excellent Work for Government by Being Named Special Agent for Sullivan and Ulster.

Charles V. DuBois of 92 Green street on Thursday received the appointment of special agent for the Bureau of Census, U. S. Department of Labor, to cover Ulster and Sullivan counties. The appointment was made by a representative of the bureau, who came from Washington, D.
C., after Mr. DuBois had successfully passed an examination. During the recent federal census Mr. DuBois had been an enumerator, his territory
having been a part of the First ward,
and after his work had been checked up and a re-enumeration of his district made his work was credited at 100 per cent by District Director Stacey, and this was taken into consideration by the census bureau in making the appointment. Mr. Du-Bois has been in the employ of the federal government for three years, first in the secret service, later in connection with the thrift savings stamp sales, having attended for a time an educational school in connection with the work held in New York city, and later for some time was an investigator of claims made by men in the war service for compensation.
In his new position he will have charge of gathering statistics as to manufactures of every kind and nature from those having had an output during 1919 from $500 and upward. He began his duties today.
His many friends will be pleased to learn of his appointment, knowing his capability for the position.

ACCORD.

Accord, March 25.—The question of a community church was taken up at the meeting of the Odd Fellows subject, after which committees were appointed to approach the governing boards of the two churches to obtain their views. The question will be given further consideration at the next meeting which will be held at the same place Monday evening, March 29. Every one is most cordially invited to be present.

Tuesday on reaching their destination
they jumped down to lift the cans off when behold there were no cans on

NEAR EAST RELIEF IN THIS DISTRICT

The following letter has been received by Newton H. Fessenden, chairman of the local Near East committee:

March 24, 1920.
Mr. Newton H. Fessenden,
Chairman Near East Committee,
Kingston, N. Y.

My Dear Mr. Fessenden:—
Wherever the people have been able to visualize the pitiful condition of the Armenians, to feel for this, the oldest Christian nation in the world, a desire to aid and relieve them, these communities have always gone "over the top" in the Near East relief appeal.

Poughkeepsie's self-imposed quota was the care of 100 orphans, but the Bridge City exceeded that amount nearly two weeks ago. Middletown, Orange county, was thirty orphans, but its chairman, Rev. Orville B. Swift, did better than that. Walden, Orange county, had a quota of thirteen orphans. Waldeen's chairman, Mrs. John W. Crowell, raised more than enough for seventeen orphans. The quota for Wappingers Falls was 12 orphans, but Chairman James Myers secured enough for sixteen orphans.

Let me give you another illustration: Vassar College outdid all previous records in its campaign for the Near East relief, when the student body last week raised $12,000. The sum Vassar was expected to raise, based upon the number of students, was $1,000. The amount contributed by the Vassar girls will help to, if not wholly support, an orphanage of 250 children. It is estimated. No other woman's college in America has made the record Vassar has for the Near East relief.

Believing and prophesying that Kingston, such a grand and proud old city, so rich in past historical traditions, a city which is such an exemplar of civic pride, civic duty and civic patriotism once, capital of the state of New York, whose legislature met in the old Senate House, will duplicate the example and the spirit of the communities referred to above, in its contribution for the Near East relief appeal.

And thanking you for your co-operation and earnest efforts to bring this desired result about, believe me,

Gratefully and fraternally yours,
JAMES A. LAVERY,
Publicity Director Poughkeepsie District.

Sea Otter's Fur Valuable.

A coat or cloak of genuine sea otter is worth more than its weight in gold. While the skins of the ordinary freshwater otter have no particular value in the fur market, the pelt of the true sea otter is today the most valuable of all furs. The sea otter was formerly found in considerable abundance off the coast of Alaska, but it is now nearly if not quite extinct.

DAIRYMEN IN ULSTER FIRM

Will Keep Milk at Home Rather Than Sell to New York Distributors at $2.24 for April—Claim to Have Worked All Year at Loss and That New Price is $1.00 per Hundred Under Cost of Production.

Sixty dairymen representing the various branches of the Dairymen's League of Ulster county, met at the supervisors' room at the court house Thursday afternoon and decidedly voted to refuse the offer of the distributors of New York city for April milk. William Hotelling of Wallkill, president of the Ulster County League, presided, and stated the meeting has been called to discuss the price of milk for April.

The dealers have offered the Dairymen's League a price of $2.24 per hundred pounds in the 200 mile zone. This price is 56 cents below the March price and $1 below the cost of production. The league has refused the offer and the Ulster County Dairymen considered the price offered as absurd.

The league members present discussed the situation in detail and finally voted to support the central office of the league in a demand for a price covering the cost of production and a reasonable profit or keep the milk at home until the distributor is willing to pay a fair price.

The discussion brought out statements that the dairymen have been working all year at a loss, and that something must be done to better the price, or the dairy industry, so vitally necessary to all, will decline at the ultimate expense of the consumer who must have dairy products.

Corns Go As "Gets-It" Comes

Pain Stops Immediately—Loosen and Lift Off Quickly

A few drops and "goodby!" That's how "Gets-It," the modern corn killer, handles corns. All you do is put a few drops on the corn, "Gets-It" does the rest—and it is a plenty. Pain ceases instantly—corn ready to lift off soon after.

A very little time and a bottle of "Gets-It" will entirely free you from corns. Then, why not be free? No pain, no trouble, no danger. Just quick, sure, certain relief. Corns and "Gets-It" just will not live together, and it's the corns that move.

It's common sense—the "Gets-It" way. You lift the whole corn right off without even feeling it after "Gets-It" has put it out of business. Corns haven't enough "pep" left to hurt after they mix with "Gets-It."

"Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Kingston and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Connolly Drug Co.

POCKET BILLIARD MATCHES AT "Y"

Among the members of the senior group at the Y. M. C. A. for the past few evenings, commencing on Tuesday, interest has centered largely in the season's third tournament in pocket billiards. Of eighteen entries the initial matches scored as follows:

Poster vs. Messinger, 50-34.
Koenig vs. Garrison, 50-29.
Murray vs. Northrop, 50-28.
Crane vs. McMillan, 50-46.
McHugh vs. Rogers, 50-28.
Johnson vs. Barmann, 50-12.
Albrecht vs. Bishop, Smith vs. Krom, Herb vs. Dolson, by forfeit.

The schedule on the second games was:

Crane vs. Herb, 50-40.
Albrecht vs. Poster, 50-35.
Johnson vs. Smith, 50-12.
McHugh vs. Koenig, 50-48.
Murray
In the third elimination, Albrecht won over Crane 50-35, and McHugh over Murray 50-21. The finals resulted in the triumph of McHugh over Albrecht 50-31, and again over Johnson 50-34; thus winning the tournament. Games were by elimination, for fifty balls each, straight pool. Some excellent playing resulted, the work of Albrecht, Crane, Johnson, Koenig, McHugh and McMillan being especially worthy of mention. A handsome leather pocketbook was awarded the winner as a trophy of the event.

REAL GENIUSES NOT "QUEER"

For instance, Taking Inefficient Nourishment Cannot Be Taken as Mark of Brillancy.

The legend that Meredith lived on the contents of a sack of oatmeal while he wrote his masterpieces is pure myth, writes St. John Ervine in the Manchester (Eng.) Guardian. He was particularly addicted to the pleasures of the table and could not have written his books on a diet of oatmeal. His letters are full of references to food and wine and, like Doctor Johnson, he contemplated writing a cookery book. He had the capacity, which every man of genius has, of being highly interested in the most ordinary things.

It is your third-rate person who is not interested in food and drink and the common things of life. Your man of genius demands that these things shall be so attended to that he can appreciate them at their best. Moreover, since eating and drinking are necessary to all of us, he wishes them to be done in such a way that he shall not be diverted from his job by complaints of the clumsy and insufficient arrangements for them.

Herbert Spencer complained of the stupid spouts that manufacturers put on just—so that it is impossible to pour liquid out of them without spilling it—and he went to the trouble to invent a paper fastener because he was dissatisfied with those in common use. A third-rate person would have been much too superior to think of such things.

ODD GIFTS FOR PRESIDENTS

Many and Various Tributes of Affection Have Been Received by Chief Executives.

Early presidents of the United States received, strange gifts during their terms as executives, the strangest of them all being, perhaps, the cheese sent to Thomas Jefferson, with the admiring inscription, "the greatest cheese in America for the greatest man in America." It was conveyed to Washington by a six-horse team. Jefferson insisted upon paying for it, and it lasted for a whole year.

Andrew Jackson was the recipient of such gifts as a whole hog from Kentucky, whiskey from Pennsylvania, beef from New York and a cheese that weighed half a ton or more from New England. The Blue room in the White House contains the most famous of the gifts received by American presidents, the golden mantle clock presented to Washington by Lafayette, who received it from Napoleon. In the Green room is the Gobelin tapestry, made by a process which is now a lost art, which the Emperor of Austria gave Mrs. Grant.

Triumph of Art.

A young artist, out on a sketching trip, came across a living specimen of the "barefoot boy with cheek of tan," properly outfitted with red and string of fish, and for a consideration induced him to pose for a sketch. In a few minutes there came along a man who would have been spotted instantly by a reasonably sophisticated observer as the head, theoretically at least, of a family. For half an hour he stood watching the artist work, then burst out in admiring enthusiasm:

"Well, sir, if that isn't wonderful! Beats all I ever saw!"

"Take the sketch, do you?" the fat-tired artist responded with a pleased blush.

"Sketch? Oh, that! Yes, it's all right, I guess. What I meant was the way you have managed to keep that boy quiet for so long."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Markets in China.
China is a land of markets. They are held in every city and town, and even in the small villages. Where there is no regular market place, much of the buying and selling is done out of doors. But there is hardly a village that hasn't its regular market place. In the larger towns and cities there are several.

Four Simple Customs.
It is harder to avoid customs than to gain experience. But to customs a man must pay his whole life without saying or doing a foolish thing.—Hume.

WHY

Men of the Negrito Tribe Shave Their Heads

Though the Philippines have made marked strides in culture, industry and civilization in recent years, as set forth in their recent pleas for independence, some natives of the islands, as do a few Indian tribes in the United States, still present striking subjects for study by ethnologists, according to a bulletin from the National Geographic society.

"The Negritos are generally considered to be the true aborigines of the Philippines, and are racially sharply distinct from most other numerous tribes of the islands," says the bulletin, which is based on a communication to the society from Dean C. Worcester. "They are of low, sometimes even dwarfish, stature, with very dark brown, or black, skins. Their heads are covered with closely curling hair, and many of them have abundant wavy beards. They often have so-called 'porcupine' hairs distributed very abundantly over their bodies. Their noses are broad and flat, their lips thick, their arms disproportionately long."

"They do not tattoo their bodies, but ornament them with scar patterns, produced by cutting through the skin with sharp pieces of bamboo and rubbing dirt into the wounds thus formed in order to infect them and make good big scars. The men wear small cloths, and the women short skirts reaching from the waist to the knee. They are very fond of brightly colored cloth, scarlet being preferred, but individuals who cannot get cloth, and there are many such, use instead the so-called 'bark cloth,' so widely employed by inhabitants of the islands of the Pacific. Men frequently shave the crowns of their heads in order to let the heat out."

Background of Bubbles.

In experimenting with soap bubbles an English scientist developed apparatus that blew them large and substantial enough to be used as a background for theater sets.

Service.

The man wished to spit, but it was a very-very early car and he was out of luck. He rang the bell, got up and went to the door of the car. At the next corner the car stopped. The motorist crawled the door for the man to get off, but he just spit and returned to his seat.

All the passengers heard the motorist say: "And still some people have got the nerve to kick on the kind of service we put out."—Indianapolis Star.

Merchants in the Philippines.
That a merchant does not need to have or retain a capital investment in an established business before he can be admitted to the Philippine islands in the case of a decision handed down in the case of a Japanese merchant who sold his business and came to Manila for the purpose of engaging in business in the islands. He was denied admission by the customs authorities on the ground that he did not belong to the class of merchants exempted by the immigration laws.

HOW MODEL PLANE MAY BE TESTED BEFORE

ACTUAL FLIGHT IS MADE. —Here are some bits of advice for model plane builders and flyers, written by H. O. Ellis, an expert on such things for the Everyday Engineering Magazine:

To test the model, first wind its motor up about half the number of revolutions ordinarily used and then launch from the hand against the wind.

If the model exhibits a tendency to dive, it shows that it is head heavy; that is to say, there is not enough lift in front. This is easily corrected by sliding the main plane forward to increase the lift in front.

If, on the other hand, the model climbs too much, it shows that it is tail heavy, in which case just the reverse procedure is used—i. e., shifting the main plane back to increase the lift in the back.

If the model tips over sideways, either to the right or left, it is probably due to the torque or twisting tendency of the propeller or faulty alignment of the main planes, tail-plane or rudder, or, in the case of a double propeller machine, one propeller being wound up more than the other. This cannot be the fault if a double winder is used, as both propellers are turned the same number of revolutions.

To correct this tipping and swerving sideways it is only necessary to increase the angle of the main plane on the side that the model tips over, or swerves. This is done by bending the rear corner of the low wing down and bending the rear corner of the opposite wing upward a bit. This corresponds to warping the planes in a large machine. Adjust rudder to turn machine to the other side.

LEAVES WATER TO TAKE PREY

How the Moray, Tropical Fish, Pursues the Crab Which It Is Seeking for Food.

University of Iowa scientists on a recent expedition to Barbados and Antigua in the tropical Atlantic found a fish which voluntarily left the water in pursuit of food, following its prey across rocky or sandy beaches.

This fish, the moray, has not the slightest fear of human beings. With bait tied to a piece of string members of the Iowa party led the moray on and on across the beach, all crowding about the fish to watch the experiment. The moray followed as far as a hundred feet or more from the water, wriggling across the rock and finally being permitted to capture the crab used as bait. Then the fish turned quickly and, by following the slope of the shore soon found its way back to the water.

It is a common sight where the moray are plentiful to find them chasing crabs and other food up the crevices in the rocks leaving the water without the slightest fear. The moray is an extremely voracious fish with big mouth and long, pointed teeth, and when its jaw once closes on its victim the catch is sure.

Silk for Consistent Hindus

Muga silk is a product of Assam. Eri silk comes from caterpillars which feed on the castor oil plant. It is of great value in India, because it is the only silk that can be spun from cocoons without killing the insects in the cocoon, and it is therefore the only silk that can be worn by a strict Hindu.

TOO MUCH TOBACCO HARDENS THE ARTERIES, OVERTAXES THE HEART AND SHORTENS LIFE

Dr. Connor, Who Suggests a Simple Test to Find If It Is Hurting You. Can You Stand It?

New York.—Dr. Connor, formerly of Hopkins hospital, says: Hundreds of thousands of men who smoke and chew tobacco and who believe themselves invulnerable, are suffering from progressive organic diseases. They would never have admitted had it not been for the use of tobacco and most of them would soon die if they would only stop the excessive use of tobacco.

The best known habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, but the most deadly is tar. The tar is the most deadly of poisons, which, when absorbed by the system slowly, but surely, effect the arteries, membranes, tissues, vital organs and the whole of the body.

The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances and the individual. In some it causes general debility, catarrh of the throat, indigestion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, cowardice and fear, mental confusion, etc., in others it causes heart disease, bronchitis, tuberculosis, cancer and the common affliction known as tobacco heart.

If you use tobacco in any form you will find that it has a harmful effect on the following simple tests. Read aloud a paragraph from a book. If your voice becomes hoarse, husky and indistinct, and if you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by the tar and it may be the beginning of a serious catarrhal trouble. Next, in the morning, before taking your usual smoke, walk up three flights of stairs at a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, if your heart beat is forced, if you feel dizzy or if you feel a sense of oppression, you may be the victim of a functional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke or chew to quiet your nerves, you are a slave to the tobacco habit and are slowly poisoning yourself with the insidious deadly drugs, nicotine and tar. In either case, you have just two alternatives—keep on with your self-poisoning process regardless of the dangers, and suffer the consequences, or rid yourself of the habit and escape the dangers.

You can overcome the craving and stop the tobacco habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula. Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol. Take one tablet after each meal and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco. The craving will have left you. With the nicotine poisoning out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note. When asked about Nicotol one of our leading druggists said: "Nicotol is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit. It is far ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol is sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including Connolly Drug Company and Ten Broeck Pharmacy.

STATE OFFICIALS VISIT D. OF A.

Tuesday evening Vanderlyn Council, D. of A., of this city received the official visit of its state councilor, Mrs. Bloom, of Brooklyn; its state vice-councilor, Mrs. Lee, of New York city, and its deputy state councilor, Mrs. E. She was 87 years of age and had been confined to her bed for the past two months. Death was due principally to decline caused by old age. The funeral of James Millard was held from his late residence, No. 244 Albany avenue, on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. The Rev. Frank B. Seelye and the Rev. Dr. Putnam Cady officiated. Prayer was offered by Mr. Seelye, who also read the beautiful hymn, "Adeeps in Jesus." Following the reading of Scripture, Dr. Cady, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church paid a noble tribute to the life and influence of Mr. Millard, who for thirty-two years had been an officer in the Presbyterian church. While reading no words from man, the word of God being sufficient for such an occasion, Dr. Cady said that he felt he could not let the occasion pass without paying his tribute to the man who during his three years' acquaintance had been a real friend, who always had kind things to say and on whose face there was always a smile. His Christian fidelity was splendid. Dr. Cady told also of one of the finest tributes possible for one man to pay another, which had come from a business man in town. Learning of Mr. Millard's death he had said, "I am sorry. In our work we need been getting from Mr. Millard are always smoother and better than any others; we can always tell them as soon as we see them." Dr. Cady recognized that business fidelity which is the expression of applied Christianity so much needed today. In fact the world today needs just such men as Mr. Millard, who will take their Christianity into their business, so that the quality of their work is recognized at sight as being the very best. "Such lives," said Dr. Cady, help others as well as themselves and assist our heavenly Father to carry out his plan for man, "Ye shall become perfect." The impressive service closed with a prayer by Dr. Cady. The acting bearers were Joseph Parle, Benjamin Van Etten, Simon Vogt, Peter Myer, Archibald Elmdorf and Lester Decker, employees of the James Millard and Son company, the honorary bearers being Andrew S. Barnes, Frank Matthews, William Niles, Charles Strube, Hiram Brink and Harvey Buckley. The interment was in Willwyck cemetery.

YOUR WATCH A POWER PLANT

Really Enormous Amount of Energy is Concentrated in That Luminous Radium Dial.
If you own a radium-dial watch with luminous figures and hands, then you are the possessor of a vast power plant of no mean proportions, says the Electrical Experimenter. There is sufficient radium on your watch dial to haul your train homeward, if it could be properly applied.
As the matter stands, the innocent-looking radium dial does not seem to possess any extraordinary amount of concentrated energy, but this is only apparently the case, and not actually so; for the reason that while the amount of activity manifested by the radium paint on the dial is small, this effect will keep up for 2,500 years, provided the zinc sulphide, with which the radium is mixed so as to produce a glow, held out that long. The zinc sulphide in most cases gives out in about eight to ten years.
Now, if we could find a way to make the radium release all its energy in a few hours, instead of spreading it over 2,500 years, it would not be difficult to make a motor that would utilize this energy.

Daddy's Status.
Barbara and Helen were spending Christmas day thoroughly enjoying the gifts Santa had left for them. Barbara, the older sister, had spent the previous summer in the country, where her father, a doctor, had thought it advisable to have her. Helen showed herself partial to a big toy horse, upon whom she had contemplated bestowing a name, when she turned to her sister with the remark: "I wonder is this a girl horse or a boy horse?"
With an indifferent shrug of the shoulders Barbara said: "I don't know."
Helen's rejoinder came promptly: "You ought to know; you were in the country long enough last summer."
Just then the children's father came into the room, and Barbara suggested they "ask daddy."
To this Helen laughingly replied: "He ain't no horse doctor; he's a person doctor."

Imparting Information.
Bartlett had heard his parents spell most of their conversations, so upon learning his first few words he greeted his father that evening with: "Daddy, we're going to R. A. T. (picture show)."

Card of Thanks.
Mr. Matthew Brennan and family wish to express their sincere thanks to their many friends for sympathy shown in their late bereavement and to the members of the Knights of Columbus for courtesies shown in their hour of sorrow.

GERMANY'S NEW CABINET WRECKED

Bitter Opposition From Labor Causes Government to Withdraw Names Announced—Mueller Trying Hard to Form New One.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Berlin, March 26.—The new coalition cabinet of Germany has been wrecked before entering office. As a result of the bitter opposition from organized labor, the government withdrew the list of appointments announced yesterday and Foreign Minister Mueller was commissioned to form a new ministry. He met with great obstacles and had not succeeded this afternoon.

It is probable that Gustav Bauer, chancellor in the old ministry, will not have a post in the new cabinet. He already has informed President Ebert that he cannot serve on account of the hostility from certain quarters.

Alfred Leggin, head of the German trades unions, has loomed up as a powerful political figure. His strength and prestige arise chiefly from the powerful strike weapon which he controls.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lord announce the engagement of their daughter, Beatrice A. Lord, to Henry Engel, of this city.

Attharacton Club.

The Attharacton Club met this week with Miss Alliger. The hostess had the paper for the day, her subject being "Alice Brown and Mary Wilkins Freeman." The interesting paper was followed by the reading of one of Alice Brown's stories by Miss Noone. Next Wednesday the club will meet with Miss Herbert, at the Kingston City Library.

Pulver-Burke.

Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church, Miss Harriet Burke of this city and Andrew Miller Pulver of Poughkeepsie were united in marriage by the Rev. A. S. Cole, pastor of the church. The bride was charmingly gowned in a tailored traveling suit and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jennie Burke, as bridesmaid. The best man was James Collins of Poughkeepsie. Following the ceremony a wedding repast was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Pulver left for New York city and from there will proceed to Atlantic City where they will remain for a few days, later going to Washington and Baltimore. They will make their home in Poughkeepsie where the groom has always resided. He is employed as a conductor on the Central New England railroad. The bride was in the employ of the New York Telephone Company until a few months ago when she entered the employ of the New Haven branch as traveling operator and resided at New Haven, Conn. Both she and her husband are popular young folks and have the well wishes of a host of friends.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Chicago, March 25.—The famous Keely Institute of Dwight, Ill., which had cured around 10,000,000 patients of their appetite for liquor has been forced out of business by the Eighteenth Amendment and will be sold to the government for use as a hospital for convalescent soldiers. For nearly half a century the institute has enjoyed prosperity and fame as the greatest of all refuges for inebriates.

Rejecting a Compliment.
A well-known member of the stock exchange, who is now living up the slope of a strenuous life in philanthropic efforts, was in his heyday a tremendous gambler in stocks, and, incidentally, he and his partner were rather expert in the game art of making enemies. One of these occurred him with the pleasant remark: "Look here, you are the biggest thief on the stock exchange." "Ah," was the answer, "it is evident you do not know my partner."—London Tit-Bits.

THE SALVATION ARMY.
Evangelist Geis Under Way and Seven Kneel.
Envoy Elliott developed steam and gathered headway early in the meeting last night at the Salvation Army Hall and those present spent a profitable evening. His illustrations were good and interesting. At the close of the service seven knelt at the penitent form for salvation. The envoy's subject was "Lord, Lord." How often a man goes home and jangles with his wife and the wife rasps the children and miserable dispositions are developed and nourished and encouraged, yet the cry of these people is always "Lord, Lord." Tonight the evangelist speaks on "Stand Fast." The meeting starts promptly at 8 o'clock, preceded by a short prayer and song service.

How "Antiques" Are Made.
In London and Manchester a small army of men are employed in making old furniture, supposed to have lain for centuries in ancestral halls. They will make a chest or settee certified to have been in use in Queen Elizabeth's spacious days, "genuine" Sheraton, Chippendale and Heppelwhite, and dainty pieces of Louis Quinze or Seize, all with irreproachable histories, and indistinguishable from the real antique furniture. America is very strong in these forgeries, and gayly produces on the spot furniture which looks as if it had been ancient when the Mayflower sailed.

How Earthquakes Radiate.
The curious manner in which earthquakes radiate from the central point of greatest disturbance until the shocks gradually lose their intensity is a phenomenon of much interest. Sometimes taking the form of a huge spider, or often spreading out in irregular directions the vibrations have been known to whisk their way through the earth's crust at the remarkable speed of two miles a second, so that the shocks seemed to take place in adjacent towns at the same moment.

Water Power Wasted.
The Alto Parana river, which divides Paraguay from Argentina and Brazil, and its many tributaries, could make Paraguay an important industrial center. The power of these waters is practically unknown, but is estimated as having, in some places, a fall of 200 feet, and a force of 100,000 horsepower power. The Iguazu falls are regarded as even more powerful than Niagara.

Largest Organ.
It is not about impossible to say where the largest organ in the world is, because there is always one being built that is bigger than the last. There are many large organs in England, and in the United States. Sydney, Australia, claimed some years ago to have the largest organ in the world, but the ship, they are always increasing in size.

Entomologic Method.
An amateur farmer secured an advertisement headed "A Cure for the Nolo Nolo Lay." This is what he got for his money: "The cure for the Nolo Nolo Lay, place a bottle of the Nolo Nolo Lay on the bed on the side on a board and fasten the bottle underneath. If it is thought desirable, a pillow may be placed under the bed's head."—See the Transcript.

Lightning Apparatus of Metal.
The original apparatus of the lightning of California, an island off the coast of Texas, is entirely of metal. The great parallel collection, the largest available either in any lightning, is of galvanized iron 7 feet 3 inches in diameter, with a focal length of 28 inches, and the 200,000 candle power flash can usually be seen 20 miles off sea.
